

Test Case Scenarios:

1. User sign-up for an account.
2. User logout & login.
3. User check for requests (after login).
4. User submits a request (after login).
5. User edits request (after login).
6. User deletes request (after login).

Test Case 1:

User sign-up for an account.

Steps	Expected Result	Pass / Fail	Remarks
1. User types in the URL of the website.	The user sees the landing page.	Pass
2. User clicks on the Sign-Up button	User will be directed to the registration page.	Pass
3 a. User fills up form. Completes all necessary details. b. User leaves any one section unfilled. c. User keys in special characters.	a. User would be notified of successful login. b. User will be notified of incomplete form. c. If special characters are accepted by form check, the form will pass. Else, it would notify of incomplete form.	a. Pass b. Pass c. Pass

Test Case 2:

User login & logout

Steps	Expected Result	Pass / Fail	Remarks
1. User types in the URL of the website.	The user sees the landing page.	Pass
2. User clicks on the Login button	User will be directed to the login page.	Pass
3 a. User fills up login details. b. User leaves any one section unfilled. c. User keys in the wrong username or password. d. user forgets details.	a. User will be notified of successful login. Navbar would change to show more options. b. User will be notified of unsuccessful login. c. User will be notified of unsuccessful login. d. User would have to click on to the "forget login info".	a. Pass b. Pass c. Pass d. Fail	d. Will need to use mailgun. Will apply in future implementation.

Test Case 3:

User checks for requests (after successful login).

Steps	Expected Result	Pass / Fail	Remarks
1. User clicks on "Relief Requests".	The user sees the requests page.	Pass
2. a. User clicks on the Home tab of the card. b. User clicks on the Address tab of the card. c. User clicks on the Details tab of the card. d. User clicks on the image tab of the card.	a. Details of the requester (request no., name of requester, urgency status and cost) should be seen. b. Delivery address of the request should be seen. c. Details of the request will be shown. d. if there are any image uploaded, it would show. Else it would indicate no images uploaded.	a. Pass b. Pass c. Pass d. Fail	d. currently, leaving a blank image will cause an error in retrieving the forms. The only workaround is to upload an image.

Test Case 4:

User submits a request (after successful login).

Steps	Expected Result	Pass / Fail	Remarks
1. User goes to Request a Run page. Clicks on Request Run button.	User will be lead to the payment page.	Pass
2. a. user keys in whole numbers and submits. b. user keys in decimal and submits. c. user clicks on cancel.	a. User will be lead to the forms page. b. user will be lead to the forms page. c. user will be returned to the Request a Run page.	a. Pass b. Pass c. Pass
3. a. User fills up form (including image). b. User fills up form (excluding image). c. user fills up form partially (excluding image).	a. User will be lead to the Request a run page. With the new request appearing. b. User will be lead to the Request a run page. With the new request appearing. c. They would be prompted to fill in the form proper.	a. Pass b. Pass c. Pass

Test Case 5:

User edits their request (after successful login).

Steps	Expected Result	Pass / Fail	Remarks
1. User clicks on Request a Run on Navbar. Clicks on which request to edit.	User will be lead to the editing page.	Pass
2. a. user fills necessary editing fields. Does not leave any blanks. b. user fills fields but there are empty fields.	a. they will be sent back to the Request a Run page after submission. b. user will be alerted on which fields to fill.	a. Pass b. Pass

Test Case 6:

User deletes request (after successful login).

Steps	Expected Result	Pass / Fail	Remarks
1. User clicks on Request a Run on Navbar. Clicks on which request to delete.	User will be lead to the confirmation page.	Pass
2. a. user clicks on confirm. b. user clicks on cancel.	a. user will be lead back to the request a run page. The deleted form will disappear from the list. b. user will be lead back to the request a run page.	a. Pass b. Pass	